1.1 Definitions

1. This organization shall be called the Media and Communication Studies Students' Council, hereafter referred to as the MACSSC
2. The MACSSC Constitution shall hereafter be known as the Constitution
3. The Faculty of Information and Media Studies shall hereafter be known as FIMS
4. The University Students' Council shall hereafter be known as the USC
5. The University of Western Ontario shall hereafter be known as UWO

1.2 Mission Statement

The MACSSC shall promote the interests and welfare of the undergraduate students of FIMS through the development, promotion, and supervision of academic, cultural, philanthropic and social initiatives and enrich the academic, social, and political lives of FIMS undergraduate students. The MACSSC strives to provide a forum for FIMS undergraduate students to voice concerns, promoting unity, cooperation and freedom to learn amongst all students. The MACSSC will serve as a liaison between the undergraduate students and the officials of FIMS as well as a liaison between the undergraduate students of FIMS, other student Councils, the USC and the administration at UWO. The MACSSC will function first and foremost as a collective body whose members cooperate across portfolios in order to achieve common goals, rather than as a cohort of individuals who focus primarily on their respective portfolios

1. The Media and Communication Studies Students' Council shall formally advocate that Western University incorporate human rights considerations into its investment policy, specifically divesting from companies that engage in, or are complicit in human rights abuses, as defined by the United Nations Principles for Responsible Investment (UNPRI).
